

World Book Day at Hill Top - next week

With schooling still happening remotely for most families next week, we are planning to celebrate World Book day a little differently this year.

We have been extremely lucky in securing one of four places for all Hill Top children to access a live online theatre session via Zoom on the 4th March. These sessions will be run by Hoglets Theatre, with a Superhero and Viking theme, focusing on stories about Thor!

There are specific times for KS1 and KS2. The details of what these sessions include and how/when to access these sessions at home are attached below.

As World Book Day will have a Superhero/Viking theme, we would love to see you all on the Zoom sessions, or in school, dressed up as somebody who is a superhero to you. This does not have to be a superhero like Spiderman or Captain America (although it can be if you want), it could be somebody such as a doctor, firefighter, athlete or character from a book.

We are also going to run a few fun competitions this year!

1. We will be running a competition for the best home-made Viking hat or shield! Please do not spend a lot of money, be creative with the materials you already have at home.

There will be a book hamper prize for the best Superhero or Viking photo sent in to or seen by your teacher.

(We are also sending you instructions on how to make a Viking Helmet and other activities)

2. We are wanting to see a photo of you, or you and your family, reading together. You can be creative with this in terms of where and how you take your reading photo! The winner's photograph will be printed on a cushion for you take home and keep.

Please send all entries in to your class teacher via Class Dojo over the course of next week. Entries will close on Friday 5th March and the winners will be announced the following week.

We hope that as many of you as possible will join the Zoom sessions, complete the competitions/challenges and have fun dressing up as a superhero!
